CDA Court Donates Toys

Patients and visitors of The Veteran's Hospital, Long Beach will benefit from the selection of 83 stuffed toys donated to the Hospitals Gift Shop, by Court Our Lady of Victory 1344, Catholic Daughters of America.

These toys all handmade were made under the leadership of sewing chairman, Mrs. Laura Duport, 19905 Anza, Torrance. The items, valued at $205, were humpty dumpty dolls, frogs, penguins, yarn dolls, and clowns.

Mrs. Duport reported to grand regent, Mrs. Stacy Rodman, 20028 Ingrum Way, Torrance, at a recent business meeting that the next sewing project will be sewing children's garments for the Pope's Warehouse in New York. These items, all made from new materials, are distributed world wide. They include boys and girls garments ranging in sizes 2 through 14.

Fuchsia Unit Will Herald Gay Holidays

Gardena Valley Branch of the California National Fuchsia society will hold its Christmas party on Monday, Dec. 12, at 7:30 p.m. at the Gardena Woman's clubhouse, 16121 Orchard Ave.

The Task Force and many others have been invited. There will be a gift exchange and each person attending is requested to bring a gift. A post office will be set up for those who wish to bring cards for distribution to members and guests.

Books suitable for children from 6 to 12 years of age will be collected for the Linda Memorial. They are placed on the Christmas tree during the program and then taken to the Children's hospital.

A plant table will be filled with Christmas plants and articles. December birthdays will be honored and Christmas carols will be sung.

The society will also sponsor a bus to the Rose Parade in Pasadena on Jan. 2. Those wishing to make reservations may contact Mrs. Elsa Stone.
